

Thomas McWilliam - Christina Fleming

Thomas Balfour McWilliam, born in Cambuslang, Lanarkshire on 4 December 1841, son Thomas McWilliam and Margaret Thom.

The origin of Thomas's middle name is a bit of a mystery. There is a James Balfour living next door to Thomas's parents on the 1841 Census.

Thomas is in Lightburn, Cambuslang on the 1851 Census, and possibly at High Carbarns Farm, Cambusnethan, Lanarkshire on the 1861 Census, employed as a Ploughman. At the time of his marriage in June 1865, Thomas is at Wheatlandhead Farm, Blantyre.

Christina Fleming, born in Blantyre, Lanarkshire c. March 1841, daughter of James Fleming and Agnes Hamilton.

Christina is at Knowetop Farm, Hamilton, Lanarkshire on the 1841 Census, where her age is given as '4 months'. On the 1851 Census she is possibly in Low Waters, Lanarkshire, employed as a House Servant (at ten years of age!) and on the 1861 Census she is possibly at Barnhill Farm, Blantyre employed as a Dairymaid. At the time of her marriage in June 1865 she is a Farm Servant at Stonefield Farm, Blantyre.

Thomas and Christina were married in Low Waters, Hamilton on 23 June 1865.

Officiated by John T. McFarlane, Minister of Brandon Street U.P. Church, Hamilton.

Witnessed by Alexander McWilliam and Elisabeth Fleming.

Thomas and Christina are at Greenhall Coachman's House, Blantyre on the 1871 Census, where Thomas is employed as a Coachman.

On the 1881, 1891, 1901 and 1911 Census they are at Greenhall Farm, Blantyre where Thomas is a Farmer.
